

Praying the Psalms Scavenger Hunt

Psalm 1. What is the man like who doesn't follow the wicked but instead meditates on God's Word day and night?

Psalm 23. What runs over because we are so blessed by the care of our Shepherd?

Psalm 144. "Blessed be the Lord, my _____."

Psalm 127. What are the children of a man's youth compared to?

Psalm 133. Brothers living together in unity is like this running down on Aaron's beard.

Psalm 61. David wanted to take refuge in the shelter of God's _____.

Psalm 52. David compared himself to a green _____ tree in the house of the Lord.

Psalm 92. The righteous still bear this in their old age.

Psalm 32. We should not be like this animal who has to be controlled with a bit and bridle.

Psalm 116. The psalmist lifts up the ____ of salvation in gratitude for all God's blessings.

INSTRUCTIONS AND ANSWER KEY

Praying the Psalms Scavenger Hunt

Print out this list for children who can read and let them look for each item on the list. They can look at the psalm listed with each clue for help. For non-reading children, give them one clue at a time. Have them find an object that represents the missing word. When they return to you with the item, give them the next clue.

Have a fun food surprise or special meal to share together at the end of your hunt!

Psalm 1. What is the man like who doesn't follow the wicked but instead meditates on God's Word day and night? A tree

Psalm 23. What runs over because we are so blessed by the care of our Shepherd? Cup

Psalm 144. "Blessed be the Lord, my rock."

Psalm 127. What are the children of a man's youth compared to? Arrows

Psalm 133. Brothers living together in unity is like this running down on Aaron's beard. Oil

Psalm 61. David wanted to take refuge in the shelter of God's wings.

Psalm 52. David compared himself to a green olive tree in the house of the Lord.

Psalm 92. The righteous still bear this in their old age. Fruit

Psalm 32. We should not be like this animal who has to be controlled with a bit and bridle. Horse or mule

Psalm 111. God provides food for those who fear Him.